Beauty director Jo Glanville-Blackburn reveals her favourite buys on the beauty counter

Get them before they go!

These adorable, limited-edition Paris-inspired designs by artist Nathalie Lété decorate Bourjois' cult classic little pots of colour – eyeshadow and blush – originally created back in 1863. Get them if you can... they'll be collectable before you know it. From £5.86 at asos.com.

Everybody's talking about... optimistic new scents

Historically, perfume has heralded a new era... Joy and L'Air du Temps signified the end of the Great Depression and the Second World War respectively. We're hoping for peace and serenity in 2010, and simple, clean scents are emerging, such as Liz Earle Botanical Essence No 1, £39.50 for 750ml, A Scent by Issey Miyake, £29.50 for 30ml, and the Sanctuary Green Tea & Jasmine, £14.99 for 50ml. It's like a new beginning – maybe!

Super facials...

...the best anti-ageing investment! If you can't make the salon, make the effort at home. These try-at-home buys will give you five to ten masks.

- + Aromatherapy Associates Indulgent Rose Facial, £80 for 90 minutes, includes a de-stress massage to reduce fine lines and de-puff skin. AT HOME: Use Aromatherapy Associates Overnight Repair Mask, £42, before bed.
- + Liz Earle Signature Facial, £83 for 90 minutes, deep cleanses and massages skin to really boost renewal. AT HOME: Try the soothing Liz Earle Superskin Concentrate, £35.50.
- + Dr LeWinn's Private Formula Facial, £25. Redeemable against products at London stores John Bell and Croyden (W1) and Warwick Pharmacy (SW1). It's a great anti-ageing, skin-softening facial. AT HOME: Dr LeWinn's Ultra R4 Recovery Masque, £40, cleans, exfoliates and brightens dull skin.

New in my handbag... for keeps!

MAC Pro Lip Erase, £11, the perfect product for the ubiquitous smoky eye. I love playing up my eyes during the party season, but make-up like this requires a neutral mouth. This concealer-type balm blanks out lips – à la Julie Christie – and makes your make-up look very cool.
