KEEPING UP APPEARANCES

Karena Callen

“ We all want to be kind to the environment – and our skin – but can't afford to blow £30 on day-to-day essentials. Which is why Jo Wood, wife of Rolling Stone Ronnie, and creator of the deluxe Jo Wood Organics brand (jowoodorganics.com), has launched a more affordable 'diffusion' range of organic bath- and bodycare. I'm stocking up on her Tula Cleansing Body Mousse, £15 – it lasts for ages. I'm glad to say others are following Jo's lead and offering high-quality, low-price organics. Don't miss ThinkHappy Organic Surge Tropical Bergamot Body Lotion, £5.99. Even hairdressers are in on the act. One of my favourite hair treats is Daniel Galvin Jnr Organic King Of Colour Glossy Blondes Conditioner, £4.99. And keep your eyes peeled for A-list hairstylist Tara Smith's new organic haircare range, due to launch in Tesco this autumn. ”

INSTANT PRETTIFIER

Thanks to the strapless dresses on the catwalks this season, it's fair to say that bare shoulders, arms and décolleté will be taking centre stage for summer. 'All that skin begs for lotions that promote a radiant, all-over sheen,' says Lisa Eldridge, 10 Years Younger's make-up pro.

Buff with a body scrub and apply a shine enhancer to damp skin. We love Givenchy Glitter To Go Fresh'n Shine Body Gel, £20; Burt's Bees Radiance Body Lotion, £12; and Agent Provocateur Maitresse Silk Stockings Lustrous Finishing Balm, £38.

Cheap thrill I've become addicted to Beautifully Delicious

Butterlicious Cocoa & Vanilla Body Butter, £4.99, from Tesco. Amazingly skin-softening, it smells – quite literally – good enough to eat.

BEAUTY SPOT

Say goodbye to plain packaging and hello to gorgeous graphics. Fashion designers Cynthia Rowley and Christopher Kane have designed limited-edition 'works of art' for Avon and Lancôme. Rowley's florals adorn Avon's summer blushes (below), powders, glosses and shadows, from £5, while Kane dresses up Lancôme's Juicy Tubes, £13.50, in eight new shades.
